Contents

1. Introduction
   - 1.1 Background 9
   - 1.2 Objectives and working process 11
   - 1.3 The project core partners 13
   - 1.4 This publication and its contribution to networking 14

2. Methodology
   - 2.1 Overall process 16
   - 2.2 Research methodology 18
   - 2.3 Self-evaluation 21
   - 2.4 Outcome Mapping and External Evaluation 23
   - 2.5 Networking and dissemination: bi-national meetings 24

3. Inventory of Working and Treatment Methods offered by the centres
   - 3.1 Introduction to the Inventory 28
   - 3.2 Structure of the Inventory 29
   - 3.3 Results 29
     - 3.3.1 Methods used by the centres 29
     - 3.3.2 Objectives and indicators of achievement 32
     - 3.3.3 Indicators 33
     - 3.3.4 Summary of SWOT analysis: 34
   - 3.4 Conclusions 41

4. A Framework for Quality Assessment
   - 4.1 Introduction to the Framework 44
   - 4.2 Structure of the Framework for Quality Assessment 48
   - 4.3 Evaluation of the Framework for Quality Assessment 64

5. Practice examples
   - 5.1 Equator Foundation 68
   - 5.2 ICAR Foundation 71
   - 5.3 Primo Levi Association 74
   - 5.4 Unit for the Rehabilitation of Victims of Torture 80
   - 5.5 XENION 83
   - 5.6 ZEBRA 86

6. External evaluation: Outcome Mapping 92

7. Conclusions
7.1 Key issues and challenges 95
7.2 Bi-national meetings 99
7.3 Staff care/Staff protection 100
7.4 Integration or socio-cultural (re-)affiliations? 108
7.5 Discrepancy between individual conflict analysis and institutional quality assessment 111
7.6 Directions for further research: Research into transformation? 112

8. References 115

Appendices
Appendix 1: Core partners and bi-national partners 117
Appendix 2: Framework for Evaluation and Anticipated Outcomes 135